

Agathe Prunel

DANCER, SINGER, ACTRESS, PIANIST, CHOREOGRAPHER

Agathe Prunel is a multidisciplinary artist: dancer, singer, actress, choreographer and passionate pianist !

Currently, she plays the role of Josette in Les Demoiselles de Rochefort at the Théâtre du Lido as well as the role of Sophie in Les Secrets de Nélie at the Musée Jacquemart-André (Label Prod).

Most recently, she danced in Le Mime et l'Étoile (Puy du Fou), twice voted the best show in the world. Her work as a choreographer was also recognized in the short film Ruby Sheila , which won the New York Independent Cinema Award. Awards in 2023.

In 2024, she co-produced the Fin de journée concert at the PinkFROG Café in New York in which she sang and danced.

Agathe grew up surrounded by music thanks to her violinist father. At a very young age, she studied piano with David Braslawky at the Saint-Maur-des-Fossés Conservatory (94). She continued her artistic studies in theatre and contemporary dance at the Bayonne Conservatory.

Agathe discovered her true passion, musical theatre, at the age of 15 during summer camps. A true artistic revelation for the young artist!

At 19, Agathe obtained a scholarship to attend the American Musical and Dramatic Academy (AMDA) in New York. For over two years, she honed her craft in the heart of Broadway and expanded her skills (tap, dance theater , belting technique, acting for the camera, etc.). She furthered her training at Broadway Dance Center and Steps on Broadway studios, where she had the opportunity to learn from the best (Chryssie). Withead , Madison Hilligoss , Dorit Koppel).

Beyond her love for the stage where she can explore diverse characters and become someone else for a moment, Agathe loves to create, improvise, choreograph and pass on her art.

Now based in Paris, her dream and goal are to tell rich stories, to portray diverse and profound characters, but above all to share joy and hope around her through her art .
