

Erik Berchot

PIANIST

Erik is a concert pianist trained at the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Paris, where he obtained First Prizes in piano and chamber music.

He then furthered his studies with great figures of the piano such as Yvonne Loriod , Germaine Mounier, Georgy Sebok , Leon Fleisher , Dimitri Bashkistrov and Arthur Rubinstein.

Winner of numerous prestigious international competitions (Viotti, Maria Canals , Marguerite Long, Chopin, Young Artists International of New York...), he leads an international career in more than forty countries and performs as a soloist with major European and international orchestras.

Close to Michel Legrand, he recorded several of his works and collaborated with filmmaker Claude Lelouch as a pianist, actor and composer.

From 2007, he accompanied Charles Aznavour as a solo pianist during his concerts in Paris and around the world.

Composer and professor at the École Normale de Musique de Paris, Erik Berchot is a Knight of the Order of Merit. He currently pursues an intense artistic and teaching activity, between concerts, recordings and new compositions.
