

More Artists Management

Agency for the promotion, distribution and management of opera and stage artists

More Artists Management supports artists in developing their careers and enhancing their artistic identity. The agency operates at the intersection of management, artistic consulting, and distribution, with an approach based on listening, trust, and collaboration.

Our mission

We support artists in all dimensions of their professional career:

- Developing a coherent and sustainable artistic trajectory
- Defending their rights and interests
- Facilitating meetings with programmers, institutions and partners
- To offer a stable and peaceful professional environment
- To promote their artistic vision and their projects

This mission is part of a constant desire to create an environment conducive to artistic development and the building of solid careers.

Our areas of expertise

- Management of opera and stage artists
- Promotion and distribution in live performance
- Artistic advice and strategic support
- Career development and professional structuring
- Connecting with key players in the sector (labels, publishers, producers, accountants, etc.)

This expertise is based on a detailed knowledge of live performance, its requirements and its dynamics .

A team from the performing arts

The agency brings together professionals with complementary backgrounds, offering a comprehensive vision and in-depth expertise:

- Patrice Montico      Music producer, songwriters' agent and publisher
- Edmond Hurtrait      , opera singer, promoter and artist manager
- Jérémie Delvert,      opera singer, artistic advisor and casting specialist
- Under the direction of conductor and orchestrator Patrice Peyriéras

This diversity of profiles allows us to approach each project with a precise understanding of the artistic, human and economic issues.

Our commitment

To support each artist with high standards, kindness, and professionalism. To protect their career. To nurture their art.
